

Thieves cashing in on drought

Jamaica, Daily Nation, 25th Feb. 2010

KINGSTON - The prolonged drought has spawned a new criminal enterprise in the form of thieves posing as National Water Commission (NWC) staff trying to sell supplies of the precious liquid to consumers, the state-run agency has said.

Read full article at:

http://news.caribseek.com/Jamaica/article_85017.shtml